RV.Net Open Roads Forum: How to remove a "pull-over" couch ...

21/12/2021 · It's from my '96 Lance 990. In the owners manual, the bed is described as a "pull-over". The top of the couch was easy enough to remove, but the bottom is a mystery. I've gone around it, outside & under the camper, and tried to pry it every which way, but it remains. There are no obvious bolts, screws, etc. It's like an escape room, but a couch.

How to Choose the Right Trailer Hitch Class | etrailer.com

8/4/2020 · @BuddyL The Curt # C11280 is a fit for the 2005 Subaru Baja. This is a Class-1 hitch rated for 2000 pounds towing capacity and 200 pounds tongue weight. However, you should check your owners manual to see what the Baja's towing capacity is. There are differences between the different sub models, and depending if your trailer has brakes. 81380

How to Increase Payload Capacity of a Truck | General Spring

Another place to check for the payload capacity is in the owner's manual of the vehicle. It's important to note the difference between payload and tow load. While the tongue weight of a trailer does draw upon the strength and engine power of the truck, a trailer has its payload capacity that won't weigh upon that payload of the vehicle.
